Crowd Control

JM Roth Run them over. Keep traffic flowing and don't slow down for any of these idiots who try and block the street. Here is the deal, you continue to drive and if you hit someone make sure you call 911 to report the accident and meet the cops a block or two away and you can justify stopping further away because you feared for your safety since in the past people in this group has shown a propensity towards violence. Since they are trying to block the street and/or cross where there is no crossing you should not be charged with anything. Now, these idiots could try and sue you in civil court, but remember that it will be jury trial and so most likely it will come out in your favor.

GRAMA

Does social media content fall under state open records laws?

YES! (sort of)

- Content is part of public record (is it duplicated?)
- Who owns the content?
- Oregon, North Carolina, Texas
- Same content/separate retention

GRAMA

From the Pennsylvania Right to Know Law:

“Record.” Information, regardless of physical form or characteristics, that documents a transaction or activity of an agency and that is created, received or retained pursuant to law or in connection with a transaction, business or activity of the agency. The term includes a document, paper, letter, map, book, tape, photograph, film or sound recording, information stored or maintained electronically and a data-processed or image-processed document.

Utah's Definition

"Record" means a book, letter, document, paper, map, plan, photograph, film, card, tape, recording, electronic data, or other documentary material regardless of physical form or characteristics:

(i) that is prepared, owned, received, or retained by a governmental entity or political subdivision; and

(ii) where all of the information in the original is reproducible by photocopy or other mechanical or electronic means.

Risks

2014:

After two years of litigation, a Honolulu Federal Court ordered the Honolulu Police Department to pay $31,000 in attorneys fees to Second Amendment activists who sued, alleging First Amendment violations after the HPD allegedly removed plaintiffs Facebook comments from an HPD Facebook page.
